ASWSU EVERETT

Gray Wolf Hall, Room 365
RSO Council

The Registered Student Organization (RSO) Council is designed to give club members and ASWSUE senate members opportunities to share ideas, information and your clubs voice to better the club infrastructure and atmosphere to maximize student involvement.

Attendance

- It is required that a minimum of one club representative is present at designated Club Council meetings.
- One excused absence is permitted, given that the club council board members are notified of the reason in writing no later than one day before a meeting is held.
- A club member cannot represent two clubs or the both a club and ASWSUE at these meetings.
- Each involved members of these meetings is able to cast one vote

Funding

- The club council must be notified of intent to request funding one week prior to the meeting in the form of a finalized proposal in writing.
- Club council can approve a maximum of $500 per semester per club.
  (Exceptions may be allowed: dependent on number of registered clubs)

Good Standing

This is mandatory to be eligible for funding and voting. Automatically in good standing at time of activation, clubs must maintain this standing by completing the following requirements:

- Follow correct club policies and rules outlined in the ASWSUE budget code and by-laws
- Participate in ASWSUE orientation meeting and two RSO Council meetings in semester (have a minimum of one representative at these meetings)
- Maintain a consistent membership of 5 or more active members

Article Descriptions and Guide

Article I  Name of Club or Organization

Article II  Statement of Purpose
A short statement describing the overall purpose of the club.

Article III  Student Impact and Goals
Answers the question: Why does this club benefit the student body? Outlines the functions that the club will be involved in.

Article IV  Membership
Describe club membership, such as who is eligible. Club membership must be open to all currently enrolled WSU-Everett students.

Article V  Club or Organization Structure
This article should be broken up into the 5 following sections:

Section I  Outline of Officers
This section adds titles to specific roles within the club. Typical titles in clubs are: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Advisor, Public Relations. Depending on the nature of the club, necessary titles should be applied. Also outline which persons will act under this title for the academic year.
Section II  Officer Requirements or Qualifications
Designate what qualities in an officer are required or preferred for elected roles. This will usually consist of specific knowledge, level of commitment, and time dedication.

Section III  Term of Office
It is recommended that people in office can hold their positions for a minimum of one semester, to a maximum of one academic year.

Section IV  Duties of Officers
Each officer role provided in section I should have one paragraph described the expected duties of each role. Ensure that tasks are spread out between roles, and be certain to take peoples personal lives into consideration when assigning tasks.

Section V  Provisions for Removal from Office
Describe the conditions that can be met in order for the club to remove an officer, such as not fulfilling their expectations outlined in the club constitution. Address what happens when a position becomes vacated.

Article VI  By-Laws
General statements connecting the processes and capabilities of club members to change the constitution.

Article VII  Operating Procedures
This section outlines what functions the membership and executive members to maintain good standing and bring success to the club.
